Num 6:22-27

Num 6:22-27

Sinabi ng Panginoon kay Moises, "Sabihin mo kay Aaron at sa kanyang mga anak na ang mga salitang ito ang bibigkasin nila sa pagbabasbas nila sa mga Israelita: Pagpalain ka nawa at ingatan ng Panginoon; kahabagan ka nawa at subaybayan ng Panginoon; lingapin ka nawa at bigyan ng kapayapaan ng Panginoon. "Ganito nila babanggitin ang pangalan ko sa pagbabasbas sa mga Israelita at tiyak ngang pagpapalain ko sila."

The LORD said to Moses: "Speak to Aaron and his sons and tell them: This is how you shall bless the Israelites. Say to them: The LORD bless you and keep you! The LORD let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you! The LORD look upon you kindly and give you peace! So shall they invoke my name upon the Israelites, and I will bless them."

The shepherds went in haste to Bethlehem and found

MARY AND JOSEPH, AND THE INFANT LYING IN THE MANGER.

Luke 2:16

January 1, 2023 • Mary, the Holy Mother of God

SHALOM

A Hebrew word that many people are familiar with is shalom, commonly translated into English as “peace.” However, the word is much richer, deeper, and broader than that. As a matter of fact, when the blessing in today’s first reading concludes with shalom, it serves as a summary of the entire blessing: shalom is God’s wholeness, well-being, longevity, harmony, as well as God’s peace. Perhaps Mary prayed this blessing while she found herself in the midst of angels, shepherds, and—quite likely, thanks to the shepherds—inquisitive neighbors who had been told of the wondrous birth. Perhaps she prayed for God’s shalom not only for herself, but also for her child as she reflected on his birth. As we stand at the threshold of a new year, we can likewise pray this blessing, with Mary as our example, pondering the mysteries of Christ in our hearts, praying for the richness, depth, and breadth of God’s shalom.

MARY THE CAREGIVER

At some point in time, most people will find themselves needing to watch over another person. This is true for parents and children of course; for others, perhaps an aging parent or spouse; a friend or neighbor living alone after surgery. At these times, along with the caregiving of the moment, there is often a focus on the future, a wondering about what will come. Quite naturally for the new mother Mary there is this future focus, with many possibilities for her to hold in her heart. She reflects quietly in the midst of the very hectic series of events that follow the birth of her child: hurrying shepherds who go and tell the wondrous news to others, then those others sharing their amazement. Luke tells us that Mary keeps all of this, and reflects on it in her heart. Mary is watching over Jesus as mothers do, watching over each and every moment.

GOD THE CAREGIVER

As Mary watches over her child, so did Israel pray for God to watch over them and one another, to bless and keep them, as Mary kept and reflected on things in her heart. Mary’s face surely shone upon the infant Jesus, as Israel prayed for God’s face to shine upon them with that graciousness we also know in her whom we call “full of grace.” At the conclusion of the blessing in today’s first reading is a prayer for God to look on us in kindness and, even more, to grant us peace. It may be in this final line of the blessing that we see God most at work in the face and the care of Mary, gazing gently on her child, wishing the fullness of God’s shalom for Jesus and his future. Our mission as disciples is to show the divine care we hear in the blessing prayer, and to live out the care-giving we see today in Mary.

The mission of the Prayer Shawl Ministry is to celebrate life and bring solace and comfort to those persons facing illness, loss or other catastrophic life changes. This is done through prayer and the tangible gift of a prayer shawl/blanket. We come together in joy recognizing God's presence among us, and we pray that as His instruments, we fulfill His mission.

We are grateful for any donations received that help us continue to provide for those in need of healing and comfort. May God bless you for your generosity!

We meet Monday mornings from 10:00 to 12:00 in the St. Bernardine Room in the JPIL building. Please consider joining this Ministry to pray and create gifts that bring amazing comfort to others.

If you know of someone who may need a prayer shawl/blanket, contact Mary Jo Kunkel at (909) 731-3313 or the Parish Office at (909) 987-9312.

The Lamb of God, The Bread of Life,
The Body and the Blood of Christ...

these are phrases we know from Mass. But do we understand what they mean in the deeper context of Scripture and Church teaching? Acclaimed author and theologian Dr. Brant Pitre rigorously digs down to the biblical roots of the Eucharist, and its foreshadowing in the miraculous events of the Old Testament, the Gospels, and Apostolic teaching.

Eucharistic Miracle of SCETE

EGYPT, THIRD - FIFTH CENTURIES

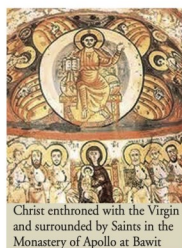

The account of this Eucharistic miracle goes back to the first centuries of Christianity and is found in the apothegm of the Fathers of the Desert who lived in the desert after the example of St. Anthony, Abbot. A monk had doubts regarding the Real Presence of Jesus in the bread and wine consecrated at Mass. After the consecration the Infant Jesus was seen in place of the Bread. Three companion monks witnessed the same appearance.

In the sayings and deeds of the Fathers of the Desert, we find the description of an ancient Eucharistic miracle. Fr. Daniel the Faranite attests: "Our Fr. Arsenius told us of a monk of the Scete who was a hard worker but lacked instruction in the Faith. In his ignorance he would say: 'The Bread we receive is not really the Body of Christ, but is a symbol of that Body.' Two of the more experienced monks heard his statement and, aware that he was a good and pious monk, decided to speak to him since they attributed his words to his ignorance and not to malice. So they informed him: 'What you are saying contradicts our Faith.' The accused replied: 'Unless you can show me evidence, I will not change my mind.' The older monks told him: 'We will pray to God about this mystery and we believe God will show us the truth.'

"A week later, on Sunday, all went to the church. At the consecration, in place of the Host, a Young Boy was seen. When the priest raised the Eucharistic Bread an angel appeared with a sword and pierced the Boy and when the priest broke the Host, Blood ran into the chalice. At the Communion, the angel took Bloodied Particles from the Host and brought them to the monks to receive. At this the doubter cried out 'Lord, I believe that the Bread is Your Body, and that Your Blood is in the chalice.' Immediately the Bloodied Flesh he had in his hand became the Eucharistic Bread and he communicated reverently."
