Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

What's your car? Let's say it's a fancy silver Toyota. Now imagine you're having lunch in a restaurant and suddenly see two men outside attempting to steal it. You run outside and confront them. They respond, "The master has need of it." How do you respond? Would you just let them take it, and leave you without a car? I don't think I would.

Yet that is precisely what the owners of the colt on Palm Sunday do. Stunningly, and perhaps a little comically, Jesus instructs two of his disciples to commandeer a colt for him to ride. And when they hear the disciples say, "The master has need of it," they let them take it. Of course, Jesus knew they'd let it go. He gave them the grace to let go of what is rightfully theirs. The result? That colt became perhaps the most famous and important animal ever. The beast plays a role in the redemption of the world.

As Holy Week begins, Jesus perhaps will send people to you to ask for something valuable to you. Perhaps it's your car. More likely it's something like your attention, time, or energy. It's natural to resist at first. We've got things to do, after all. But if the interruption is from Jesus himself, listen to that voice which calmly says, "The master has need of it." And simply let it go. You'll be amazed what the master will do with it.

Los invitamos a ser parte de esta hermosa experiencia de vivir en comunidad. En el ministerio compartimos y reflexionamos las Lecturas Dominicales y juntos buscamos su conexión con nuestra experiencias y su llamado a la conversión. La Palabra de Dios es compartida bajo las modalidades de Lectura
Meditada, Reflexión Comunitaria, Lectio Divina y
Noche de Salmos. En las Pequeñas
Comunidades de Fé se busca que sus elementos:
la Oración, Compartir la Fé, Apoyo Mutuo, Crecimiento y Acción/Misión se conviertan en una forma de vida que nos ayudará a formar, fortalecer, profundizar nuestra fé y a vivir en comunidad.

Lectio Divina (Latin for Divine/Holy/Sacred Reading) is a method of prayer that dates back to early monastic tradition. It's one of the many ways to pray with the scripture that engages scriptural reading, meditation, and prayer. Lectio Divina is not Bible study. It's a listening experience of how God is speaking to us here and now. Those who engage Lectio Divina faithfully tend to grow in the knowledge of God's word and experience of communion with God and his people. Although one may pray with any Bible Gospel passage, our focus is on the Gospel of the upcoming Sunday in a family or group setting.

Come and join us every Monday evening. We start promptly 7:30PM and ends at 8:30PM via Zoom.

TAGALOG CORNER

Nagpakumbaba si Jesus at naging masunurin hanggang kamatayan, maging ito man ay kamatayan sa krus. Dahil dito, siya'y lubusang itinaas ng Diyos, at binigyan ng pangalang higit sa lahat ng pangalan.

Christ became obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name.

Tenebrae Service

Holy Wednesday
April 5th, at 7 pm

"Tenebrae" is Latin for "shadows" or "darkness." The service is an ancient monastic practice traditionally held as a "vigil" service for Jesus as we mark Jesus entering the passion for us. In this adapted form, we will meditate on scripture readings, grieve through song, and 15 candles will be progressively extinguished, symbolizing Him being abandoned by his apostles.

COLUMBUS

The Knights of Columbus want to thank all those that were able to donate to our recent I.D. Tootsie Roll Drive to raise funds for the intellectually disabled. Our Parish was able to raise over $1500.00 and those funds will be going to OPARC and the Inland Valley Down Syndrome Association.

The generous donations by our Parish allowed the Knights of Columbus to fundraise over $7500.00 for our Baby Bottle Campaign! Those funds will be distributed to Assure Pregnancy Clinic, Corona Life Services, and San Bernardino Pregnancy & Family Resource Center. Thank you from all the members of the Knights of Columbus!

Eucharistic Miracle of PRESSAC

FRANCE, 1643

In the Eucharistic miracle of Pressac, a chalice in which a consecrated Host had been placed was completely fused after a fire in the parish church. The only thing remaining of the chalice was the foot of the chalice on which had formed a tin bubble under which the Host was found completely intact. The Miraculous Host was consumed the day after, but there are many documents which testify to this miracle still in existence today. Among these documents are the windows of the church of Pressac which depict the different phases of the miracle.

Depiction of the chalice as it appeared after the miracle of Pressac next to the account written by François du Theil, curate of Availles-Limouzine in the year 1643.

Foot of the Miraculous Chalice

The miracle occurred on Holy Thursday, 1643. After having celebrated Mass and everyone had received Communion, the people of the town returned to their jobs and the priest placed the chalice back into the repository. This was near the altar dedicated to the Blessed Virgin which had four pillars of wood supporting a marble slab on top of which was a corporal. Behind the altar there was a depiction of a Eucharistic scene. A veil covered the chalice and two large candles were lit at the foot of the repository. It was mid-day and the sacristan closed the door of the church. Two hours later, those nearby noticed thick, black smoke coming from the windows of the church. Since the windows had inadvertently been left open, this probably fanned the flames of the candles and accelerated the fire. The people called the sacristan to open the doors and they all entered to assess the damage. The repository and the painting were destroyed. What was left were the marble slab, the corporal and the foot of the chalice. The report would later say that almost the entire cup was transformed into "drops of tin."

Above what was left of the chalice there formed a bubble of tin under which the Host was found completely intact having withstood the flames and the fusion of the metal. The vicar, Simon Sauvage, came to the place of the miracle and carried the damaged chalice to the main altar for all to see. The Host, light red around the edges, was consumed the next morning during the Divine Office of Good Friday. We should remember that the Liturgy back then held that only one of the consecrated Hosts should be reserved in the ciborium and placed in a chalice covered by a simple veil. The Abbot of Availles-Limouzine, François du Theil, recorded all of the testimony and gave it to the Bishop of Poitiers, Henri Louis Chastagnier de la Roche-Posay who authorized the cult of the miracle with a solemn act which states: "The Sacred Mysteries are incomprehensible, if the splendor of grace does not illumine the spirit in order to elevate it to the highest understanding of the wondrous effects of the power of God and to obligate all men to adore Him, who is owed their adoration. The ineffable goodness of God is manifested at times in extraordinary ways, working miracles in the Church in order to confirm the Catholic Faith and to confound the errors of the unfaithful spirits."
