A "Saint-Making" Machine

In all walks of life, people have goals that they want to accomplish. To become a nurse, a doctor, a lawyer, a teacher or any other type of professional, many years of school and hard work are required to attain that goal. Once a person graduates and receives a degree, there is still more to be learned by actually practicing what they have been taught. Once they have practiced for a period of time, they are considered to be accomplished professionals. All of the hard work and effort pay off after many years of making mistakes, problem solving and facing new situations.

It's not much different in the Catholic Church. People come to the Church from all different walks of life and various faith traditions. Some are already baptized, but many are not and have no religious background whatsoever. There are also those who have been married to a Catholic for many years and have been coming to church for some time. Often times they have joined ministries and serve the community, but eventually discover there is something missing... they don't quite feel like they are fully a part of the Church.

This missing link is what Catholics call, "The Sacraments", especially the sacraments of initiation...Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. These sacraments, instituted by Christ, as an outward sign to give grace, have been with the Church since the time of the Apostles. Christ sanctified the waters by being baptized in the Jordan River. He instituted the Eucharist and the priesthood at the Last Supper. Finally, in Confirmation, the Holy Spirit came to the Apostles in the upper room at Pentecost. These sacraments, which are celebrated within our liturgy, are vital to the life of the Church. Every time someone is baptized, confirmed, married, ordained, anointed or receives Eucharist, we are all blessed. These sacraments give new life to our community.

We are a Church that depends on evangelization. Our baptism calls for us to share the faith and make it known to all who will listen. We are called to live a life of prayer and love. We are called to be hopeful and holy. We are called to be charitable and forgiving. In other words, the Catholic Church is in the business of making saints. It is a 'saint-making' machine. We learn not only by the Word of God and the sacraments, but also by example. We look back at all those holy men and women of God who came before us and we learn how they followed Jesus Christ.

The road to sainthood is not an easy one, but anything worthwhile requires time and effort. Joining the church is not like joining 24-Hour Fitness or the local country club. One does not just pay at the door and instantly receive a membership card. It involves time, commitment and effort along with prayer and discernment. It is a journey... a journey of faith where one changes the way they live. Becoming Catholic is not an extra-curricular activity...but a way of life.

We learn very quickly that it is difficult to live a holy life when we are surrounded by a world that is full of obstacles and temptations. Much of our strength comes from the community. We must be active so that we may benefit from the support of our fellow believers. An offense against our brother or sister is the same as an offense against our God. When we ask God for forgiveness, we must also ask one another for forgiveness.

To live a life for God and to pursue holiness...we must be there for one another...we must forgive one another...and we must love one another. And that, my brothers and sisters, is how saints are made!

Director of Liturgy

The mission of the Prayer Shawl Ministry is to celebrate life and bring solace and comfort to those persons facing illness, loss or other catastrophic life changes. This is done through prayer and the tangible gift of a prayer shawl/blanket. We come together in joy recognizing God's presence among us, and we pray that as His instruments, we fulfill His mission. We are grateful for any donations received that help us continue to provide for those in need of healing and comfort. May God bless you for your generosity! We meet Monday mornings from 10:00 to 12:00 in the St. Bernardine Room in the JP II building. Please consider joining this Ministry to pray and create gifts that bring amazing comfort to others. If you know of someone who may need a prayer shawl/blanket, contact Mary Jo Kunkel at (909) 731-3313.

Eucharistic Miracle of ASTI

ITALY, 1535

In both the Eucharistic miracles of Asti, real blood gushed out from the consecrated Hosts, and there are numerous documents that confirm these events. In the first miracle, Mons. Scipione Roero had a notary act drawn up and, on November 6, 1535, Pope Paul III granted a plenary indulgence to anyone who visited the Church of San Secondo on the anniversary of the miraculous event

Oil Painting on canvas (of an unknown 17th century painter) depicting the Eucharistic miracle that took place in the collegiate church of San Secondo in 1535. The painting is kept in the chapel of the miracle

Collegiate church of San Secondo in Asti

Interior of the collegiate church of San Secondo

G. Badarello (toward the end of the 17th century), collegiate church of San Secondo, altar of the crucifix or of the miracle

On July 25, 1535, while celebrating Mass at the main altar of the Collegiate Church of San Secondo at about 7:00 o'clock in the morning, a holy priest by the name of Domenico Occelli prepared to break the Host and noticed that, along the entire break, the Host was becoming red with living Blood. Three drops fell into the chalice and a fourth one remained at the extreme end of the Host. At first, Fr. Domenico continued the celebration of the Mass. But when he broke off the portion of the Host that had to be placed in the chalice, Blood came out of the Host. He could not believe his eyes, and he turned to the people, asking them to come to the altar and observe the miracle. When the priest was about to consume the Host, the Blood disappeared at once and the Host returned to the natural purity of the Eucharist. These are the facts as described in the translation of the official report sent by Bishop Scipione Roero of Asti to the Holy See and reproduced in the Apostolic Brief of November 6, 1535. In this Apostolic Brief Pope Paul III granted a plenary indulgence to those "who visited the Saint's church on the day commemorating the miracle and recited three Our Fathers and Three Hail Marys according the intention of the Holy Father."

According to another document, reproduced in an inscription on marble, on that occasion some heretical soldiers converted to the faith. In those days, Asti was under the dominion of Emperor Charles V, and many of his troops were living in the city. This account is found in the Vatican archives from which a copy was made in 1884 at the request of Canon Longo and is also found in the book of the Company of the Most Blessed Sacrament, founded in the Collegiate Church of San Secondo as far back as 1519. Other testimonies are a 16th century painting in the Chapel of the Crucifixion depicting the miracle, as well as an inscription on marble with the words: Hic ubi Christus Ex Sacro pane Effuso sanguine Exteram vi traxit fidem Astensem roboravit - Here, having shed Blood from the Holy Bread, Christ drew foreigners to the faith and strengthened that of the people of Asti.
