PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

*God our Father,
We thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons.
Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call.
May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, forever and ever. Amen*

He's Coming

The seasons are changing, the fall colors are evident and the air is becoming crisp, cool and clear. We are entering the season of Advent in the Catholic Church and like our outside world where things are changing we will begin to see changes inside our church, and hopefully in our hearts. The Advent season is the beginning of the Church year and it starts today. There are four Sunday's in Advent, (not necessarily four weeks). This year the fourth Sunday of Advent falls on December 24th. But wait, you say, isn't that Christmas Eve? And don't we celebrate Christmas on that day? The answer is yes and no.

Contrary to popular belief and what Wal-Mart and Macy's tells us, the Christmas season does not begin until the Christmas Vigil on December 24th. On December 24th, Catholics are obliged to come to Mass for the Fourth Sunday of Advent and then once again at the Christmas Vigil or on Christmas Day. There is no 'two-for-one special'. On those dates, we get two opportunities in a row to receive Jesus. But let's get back to Advent.

The word Advent comes from the Latin word 'Adventus' which means coming or arrival. We celebrate Advent as a season of hope. This hope comes from the promise that Christ gave us.... that he will come again. To prepare ourselves for this second coming, the church helps us by changing the environment in our worship space. The colors are changing from green (ordinary time) to violet, (a penitential symbol).

We also have an Advent Wreath that is made up of four candles (three violet and one rose colored) and a circle of branches. We Catholics cannot take credit for the development of the Advent Wreath; we have to thank our Lutheran friends for that. The wreath is loaded with symbolism and that is one reason that the church has adopted its use. The wreath itself is usually made from evergreens and it symbolizes our God who has no beginning and no end. The progressive lighting of the candles symbolizes our hope and anticipation of the coming of Christ. The rose colored candle is lit on the third Sunday, formerly referred to as 'Gaudete' Sunday, taken from the Latin translation from St. Paul's letter to the Philippians 4:4, Gaudete in Domini semper, which means 'Rejoice in the Lord always'. We are half way to Christmas and we rejoice that we are that much closer to celebrating the first coming of Christ. We are encouraged to also have an Advent wreath in our homes so that we can prepare the way for Christ by allowing peace and love to enter into our homes and our hearts.

The changes that we will notice in the Mass are: violet colored vestments and accents; the lighting and blessing of the Advent wreath; there is no Gloria sung or recited, (this is done "So that on Christmas night the song of the angels may ring out anew in all its freshness;") and there is a solemn blessing over the people at the end of Mass. The readings for the first Sunday are apocalyptic; the second Sunday, John the Baptist prepares the way, leading us to the third Sunday as John the Baptist announces the coming of Christ, calling us to greater good. Finally, on the fourth Sunday, Mary visits her cousin Elizabeth, who acknowledges Jesus in her womb. The long waiting period of Advent's anticipation slowly begins to break as we look forward to the good news of Christmas and the birth of our Savior.

So, how do we put into practice, this penitential attitude and remove ourselves from the distractions of everyday life? And how do we stay alert, so that whenever the hour or the day comes, we are ready? We do so by deliberately removing ourselves from the world and entering into that sacred space we call 'church'.... and we do it more than just on Sundays. If there was ever a time to begin going to daily Mass, this would be it. We have the opportunity to follow the readings, day by day, that lead us to Christ's coming.

Our own parish community is helping us prepare by hosting an Advent Parish Mission. We are able to gather as a community of believers to pray together, learn together and worship together so that we may come to know, love and serve the Lord better and better each day. We also have a Parish Penance service on Dec. 13th where we ask for God's forgiveness of our sins. All of these things help us so that we can come to Him with a clean heart on Christmas Day, as we sing with all of the angels, "Gloria in excelsis Deo!"

Heart of Mary

All are invited to attend Heart of Mary, a morning of faith and fellowship this Saturday, December 2nd. We are excited to bring to you a gathering of life. Just as Jesus birth brings life to us; Andrea Giles will be sharing her life and giving ideas on how we can take a different approach to help spread a culture of life in the world.

In the spirit of giving, please bring an unwrapped baby item for Assure Pregnancy clinic. This clinic supports mother's in need with essentials for their babies. If you would like to donate and can not attend, please contact Maggie Smits at 909-987-2575 to arrange a pick up. At this time, Assure Pregnancy does not need diapers.

A hot breakfast will be served, so come hungry. We want to thank Chef Wan and Siska, in advance for offering to cook a delicious meal for us!

We look forward to seeing you Saturday.

Love, Michelle, Liz, Maggie and Teresa, who will be in Ireland

Tagalog Corner

Ito ang ipinapasabi ng Panginoong: "Ako mismo ang maghahanap at mag-aalaga sa aking mga tupa. Kung paanong hahanap ng pastol ang tupa niyang nawawala, gayon ko hahanapin ang aking tupa. Kukunin ko sila saanman sila itinaon noong panahon ng kanilang kasamaan. Ako mismo ang magpapastol sa kanila at hahanap ng kanilang pahingahan. Hahanapin ko ang nawawala, ibabalik ang nalalayo, hihilutin ang napilay, palalakasin ang mahihina, ngunit pupuksain ko ang mga malulusog at malalakas. Ibibigay ko sa kanila ang katarungan

Thus says the Lord GOD: I myself will look after and tend my sheep. As a shepherd tends his flock when he finds himself among his scattered sheep, so will I tend my sheep. I will rescue them from every place where they were scattered when it was cloudy and dark. I myself will pasture my sheep; I myself will give them rest, says the Lord GOD. The lost I will seek out, the strayed I will bring back, the injured I will bind up, the sick I will heal, but the sleek and the strong I will destroy, shepherding them rightly.

Next weekend, we will be restoring the practice of serving the chalice to all the faithful. As always, receiving from the chalice is an option. We receive Jesus, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity, in the consecrated host and/or in the Precious Blood.
