Are Those Rites Right for the Mass?

Most of us have attended a Mass at some time or another and maybe noticed a group of people who are studying and discerning about becoming Catholic. These people are part of a process called RCIA. When they are at Mass, something different takes place and the liturgy may take longer. You may be asking, what is this RCIA process and where did it come from and why do they have to be involved right in the middle of our Sunday liturgies? After the Second Vatican Council, it had been determined that the ancient 'Order of the Catechumenate' should be restored in order to assist the church in the formation of people who are seeking initiation into the Catholic Church. This was established by decree of The Sacred Congregation of Rites in the document 'Cum Nostra Aetate' on January 27, 1966. Twenty years later, (things happen slowly in the church) The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) was canonically approved by the National Conference of Catholic Bishops. Two years later, (we're moving a little faster now) the bishops approved publication of the rite in English and it was now mandatory in the dioceses of the United States. So much for the history and background. You might be asking, what is this rite and what does it mean to me as a Catholic in the pew? The RCIA is a rite of the church no different than the Rite of Marriage, The Rite of Confirmation, The Rite of Christian Burial, etc. One thing that these rites all have in common is that they have a place in our liturgy of the Mass, which by the way, is also a rite. Since 1988, the Catholic Church has used the RCIA as a process of evangelization to introduce new members to our Catholic way of life. The rite is loaded with symbolism and prayers that are not only for those seeking membership, but also to be used as a renewal for the Faithful so we are able to reflect on our own journey of faith. The process consists of one to two years, depending on whether the individual is baptized or not. Here at St Peter and St Paul, we host the catechumenate at our weekend Mass of 9AM on Sundays. At those liturgies, there is a dismissal rite after the homily that sends forth those who are preparing for initiation to reflect on the Word of God. They do this until they are prepared and ready to receive Jesus in the Eucharist at the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday. We don't want to invite people to dinner and not feed them. That is why they are dismissed so they can be nourished with God's Word.. The proper order for which an un-baptized person receives his/her sacraments of initiation are, Baptism, Confirmation and First Holy Communion. The rite is for anyone over the age of reason (seven years old). SP & SP currently has a process for adults eighteen and over. Children and teens meet separately. We are blessed to have the fullness of the rite implemented in our community and we are thankful for the support of so many sponsors and team members who step forward and give of their time to walk along side these beautiful people who want to live the Catholic life. The next time you attend a mass where there is an RCIA rite, try and remember to give thanks to God for giving you the opportunity to participate in the building up of the 'Body of Christ'.

Tagalog Corner

Ngunit dahil naninirahan sa inyo si Cristo, mamatay man ang inyong mga katawan dahil sa kasalanan, ang espiritu naman ninyo ay buháy sapagkat itinuring na kayong matuwid ng

Diyos. Kung naninirahan sa inyo ang Espiritu ng Diyos na siyang muling bumuhay kay Jesu-Cristo, siya ang muling bubuhay sa inyong mga katawang may kamatayan, sa pamamagitan din ng kanyang Espiritung naninirahan sa inyo.

But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the spirit is alive because of righteousness. If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit dwelling in you.

By the fall of 1984, the new parochial preschool opened its doors to parish families and the local community with the help of seed money from parishioners, the local Knights of Columbus and the St. Peter & St. Paul Parish Bridge Club.
