Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
 As we come together to celebrate the 2nd Sunday of Easter—Divine Mercy Sunday, we are filled with gratitude for the many blessings the Lord has poured out upon us for almost 55 years as a parish family at St. Peter & St. Paul Catholic Church.

In today's John's Gospel (John 20:19–31), we witness the Risen Lord appearing to His disciples, speaking peace into their fear, and offering mercy to a doubting Thomas. Just as Jesus met the early Church in their need, He has faithfully walked with our parish community through every joy and challenge for over five decades.

Let us echo the words of Thomas with renewed faith: "My Lord and my God!" May this Divine Mercy Sunday renew in us a deep trust in Christ's love, and a spirit of thanksgiving for all He has done in our lives and in the life of our parish.
 Jesus, I trust in You.

With joy and gratitude,

Rev. Alwyn B. Anfone, Ph.D.
 Administrator
 St. Peter & St. Paul Catholic Church

APRIL/MAY CALENDAR

Alleluia! He is Risen!

As we gather in the joy of this Easter season, we are reminded of the profound mystery and promise of our faith: the resurrection of Jesus Christ, the triumph of life over death, and the victory of love over sin. The empty tomb is not just a symbol of hope; it is a call to each of us to live as Easter people, transformed by the light of Christ and emboldened to share His love with the world.

In this holy season, let us reflect on the boundless mercy of God and the unwavering hope found in His Son. Just as the disciples were sent forth to proclaim the Good News, we too are called to be witnesses of Christ's resurrection in our daily lives—within our homes, our classrooms, and our wider community.

To our students: May this Easter inspire you to grow in faith and kindness, recognizing the presence of Jesus in your studies, friendships, and acts of service.

To our teachers and staff: Thank you for nurturing the minds and hearts of our young people, guiding them not only in academics but also in the values of faith, hope, and love.

To our parishioners and families: Your steadfast commitment to our mission strengthens the foundation of our community, rooted in the Gospel and united in prayer.

As we celebrate the resurrection of our Lord, let us also commit to being vessels of His light in a world yearning for hope and healing. May the joy of Easter renew our spirits, strengthen our bonds, and deepen our relationship with Christ, who lives and reigns forever.

Wishing you and your loved ones a blessed and joy-filled Easter!

In Christ's Love,
